Received this from Paul KB1QQI:

Hi folks I am Paul KB1QQI your Public Service Chair. We just completed a busy Spring with multiple events and many volunteers. I personally will like to thank all who helped out at the Lucy Robbins Wells 5k run. George Lillenstein (AB1GL), Steve Ewald (WV1X), Ethel Kramer (KB1NMO) Stephanie (kd6ccb) and Jim Bustos, Richard (KB1DMX) and Rose Ann (KB1DMW) Lawrence all supplied their highest professionalism in radio communication. June 23 was our field day. Participation was minimal but the four of us along with 4 walk ups had a and Paul (KB1QQI) for your continued dedication to the NARL radio club. I had a great time.

Before we settle down for the summer, I have one more event that NARL performs radio duty for. July 28 (Saturday) is the Scottish 5k Run in Newington, CT. I am looking for volunteers to help in radio communication throughout the race. The event only lasts about 3 hours from set to sweep vehicle. We will meet behind Walmart in Newington at 7:30 am. Those who are interested can email me at messimeris@sbcglobal.net. Let any new hams know events like this are a good way to get your feet wet in performing radio communication at a public event.

73's and enjoy your summer Paul Labieniec

P.S. George and Quentin, we missed you at field day and wish you two a speedy recovery.
